

Susannah Carr and Rick Ardon have been working in tandem at the newsreading desk of TVW for half the station's life. And as far as anyone can ascertain, their partnership has a longevity that cannot be beaten in any capital city in the world. Certainly, they hold the record in Australia. Carr started her career with the ABC and Ardon as a cadet journalist with The West Australian.